

HR Leave Policy

1. Purpose

This document describes the company's leave entitlement policy for all full-time and part-time employees. It covers annual leave, sick leave, parental leave, and unpaid leave of absence. The goal of this policy is to make entitlements clear and to describe the process for requesting time off in a way that is fair and consistently applied across every department.

2. Annual Leave Entitlement

Full-time employees accrue twenty (20) days of annual leave per calendar year, credited monthly at a rate of 1.67 days. Part-time employees accrue leave on a pro-rata basis according to their contracted hours. Unused annual leave may be carried over into the next calendar year up to a maximum of five (5) days; any additional unused balance is forfeited unless local law requires otherwise.

- Requests must be submitted at least two weeks in advance.
- Manager approval is required before leave is confirmed in the system.
- Leave taken during a public holiday does not count against the annual balance.

3. Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to ten (10) paid sick days per year. A doctor's note is required for absences exceeding three consecutive days. Employees should notify their manager as early as possible on the first day of absence, ideally before the start of the workday, so that workload can be redistributed appropriately.

4. Parental Leave

Primary caregivers are entitled to sixteen (16) weeks of paid parental leave. Secondary caregivers are entitled to four (4) weeks of paid leave. Parental leave may begin up to two weeks before the expected due date and must be taken within twelve months of the child's birth or adoption.

5. Unpaid Leave of Absence

Employees who have exhausted paid leave options may request an unpaid leave of absence of up to ninety (90) days, subject to manager and HR approval. Continued employment and benefits during unpaid leave are handled on a case-by-case basis in accordance with local labor law.
